Attn: Renata Hesse, Trial Attorney
Department of Justice

I want to express my opposition to the Microsoft settlement. I don't not believe it goes nearly far enough to adequately address the harm Microsoft has done to the technology industry. Their complete dominance of the sector, and their practices aimed at eliminating any and all competitors. I support AOL/Time Warner in their efforts to seek redress for the monopoly Microsoft attempted to create in the web browser market, and I see nothing from Microsoft to convince me that they will not continue on its apparent course of complete world domination of the software/operating system industry. Please do not let Microsoft off the hook so easily.
